

GIVES NEW SKINS.

A Lotion That Bleaches Colored People White.

NEW YORK, August 2.—A startling revelation was made in Jefferson Market Police Court to-day when Manie Brown, a colored woman, was charged with stabbing Lucy Dersey, a colored girl, both habitues of the tenderloin district. The case was disposed of speedily, as every one, from the terrible condition of the prisoner's face, thought she was either a victim of leprosy or smallpox. It was swollen to twice its natural size and the skin was of a livid pink color, mottled on the forehead and chin.

Inquiry developed the fact that her face was affected by a preparation to bleach black skins. The lotion is applied by a Miss Elliott. She is handsome, middle-aged and looks as though she had Spanish blood in her veins. In an interview to-night she said: "I am a chemist and a graduate of Oberlin University. My discovery, although wonderful, is entirely harmless. While studying chemistry at Oberlin, I had a friend who was troubled with a disfiguring birth mark. She hit upon a preparation which partially obliterated the mark. This she gave to me, and by elaborate experiments I finally developed a lotion which completely removed the old skin, replacing it with a perfect complexion."

"Does it affect the brain?" was asked.

"Do I look insane?" she replied. "Well, I am a colored woman bleached by my own lotion. This wavy black hair of mine was once as kinky as wool, but by another secret preparation I have changed it as you see."

The woman has no certificate to practice medicine and may be taken in hand by the Medical Society.

A MYSTERY CLEARED UP.

How a Whalehunter Was Lost in the North Sea.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 3.—Captain McAulay of the sealer Beatrice, who arrived yesterday, says that in conversation with the captain of the wrecked bark Sea Ranger early in the season he learned the particulars of the mystery in connection with the finding by the Black Diamond of a small whaling boat with the body of a man attached to it by a long line.

The boat to which the body was attached was in the lead of two other boats in the chase of a large cow whale, the first tacked during the season. He had successfully harpooned the whale, but the monster broke loose. The deceased hoisted a small sail and went in pursuit of the whale, but as the sea was stormy the boat capsized. The accident was not noticed by his comrades in the pursuit or the watchers on the vessel. They had secured all the oil, some 201 barrels, and bone valued at about $6000 before they realized that the man and the boat were missing. Search was immediately made and kept up for more than a week without success. The missing man formerly lived in Victoria, B. C. The Sea Ranger was wrecked shortly after the accident and was purchased by the storekeeper at Kayah.

MADE AN APOLOGY.

Peace Between the French and English in Siam.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Bangkok correspondent of the Times telegraphs as follows: By Admiral Humann's command the captain of the French gunboat Lion has made an unreserved apology to Captain McLeod of the British cruiser Pallas for having steamed down with crew at quarters and guns out upon the Pallas, which was lying outside the blockade line. Captain McLeod's prudence and coolness alone averted armed conflict. This and other similar instances of the Lion's conduct justified the Pallas in preparing to prevent being taken at a disadvantage.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's Tasteless

Preparation OF Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

In making up an order, see that it includes a subscription for yourself and for one or more relatives or friends abroad to "THE FRIEND," the oldest paper published in the Pacific, Rev. S. E. Bishop, Editor; published monthly, at $2 per annum, devoted to the religious and educational interests of these islands, as also a recorder of political and other current events. Sample copies mailed to any address. A limited number of advertisements inserted at reasonable rates.

The Hawaiian Annual now in its Nineteenth year, and not only as the best authority on all information pertaining to the islands that residents should know and strangers invariably ask, but the only reference book of Hawaiian statistics, and annual recorder of current and remnant events. There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imparts in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each
